

Announcement: Kirk Karabelas

January 5, 2025

Horing Welikson Rosen & Digrugilliers PC is pleased to announce that Kyriakos “Kirk” Karabelas, Esq. has joined the firm as our newest partner. With over 27 years of experience, Kirk is a skilled litigator specializing in real estate litigation, residential and commercial landlord-tenant disputes, and Supreme Court litigation.

Kirk is a graduate of Touro University Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center and was admitted to practice in New York in March 1995. He was a founding member of Karabelas and Papagianopoulos, LLP, which was established in 2002 and operated in Astoria, and thereafter Long Island City, where he represented landlords and real estate developers. In 2007, Kirk became Chairman of the newly formed Alma Bank, based in Long Island City, NY, and in April 2024, he transitioned to the role of Vice Chairman.

Kirk is a member of the Judiciary Committee of the Bar Association of the City of New York, and has served on numerous other committees within the NYC and Queens County Bar Associations.
