

Announcement: Matthew Rosen & Louis Marinos

March 31, 2025

Horing Welikson Rosen & Digrugilliers, PC is pleased to announce the elevation of Louis Marinos, Esq. and Matthew Rosen, Esq. to partners of the firm, effective April 1, 2025.

Louis Marinos joined the firm as an associate in 2023 and brings over 12 years of experience in representing landlords in both residential and commercial property matters. He has successfully handled cases across housing, civil, and district courts, from the initial stages through appeals before the Appellate Divisions. Louis has also represented property owners in the Supreme Court and before the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal.

Matthew Rosen joined the firm in 2019 and has focused his practice on landlord-tenant litigation throughout New York City. He routinely appears in both residential and commercial parts of the Queens County Housing Court and has successfully handled various civil litigation matters related to landlord-tenant disputes.

We are excited to see their continued growth and success in their new roles and look forward to the continued excellence they will bring to the firm and our clients.

Please join us in congratulating Louis and Matthew on this well-deserved recognition.
